

Analysis Chart

Choose six (6) quotes (two from the beginning, two from the middle, and two from the end) write them in the column provided. Then analyze the quotes. What do these quotes mean? How do they contribute to the story plot?

Choose quotes that focus on character, setting, mood, theme, conflict, author’s word choice, or author’s point of view. Cite the page number for each of the quotes. Your analysis should be at least 5-7 sentences for each quote. Elaborate and expand your thoughts. Think outside the box.
